

Papa and Mama Root perform a mix of great songs from the '60's Generation, along with their own country rock tinged originals.

Papa and Mama Root pay tribute to the great songs and recording artists from the late 1950's through the early 1970's.

Their tribute selections include songs from a diverse list of artists including early rock and roll legends like Ricky Nelson, the Everly Brothers, and Fats Domino to '60's and '70's" stars such as Bob Dylan, Wilson Pickett, the Rolling Stones, the Beatles, Creedence Clearwater Revival, the Band, and a host of southern rockers.

Country rock, British invasion rock, oldies rock, southern rock, folk, rhythm and blues, country blues...you get a taste of all of this music goodness with Papa and Mama Root!

In addition, their original material delivers a country rock feel with music stories influenced by "coming of age" during rock's golden era.

Papa and Mama do not use backing tracks or other recorded material. They don't hide behind someone else's music! They perform real, simple and in the moment. Papa plays acoustic/electric guitar and harmonica and vocals. Mama adds textured harmony richness to round out their unique original song style and classic song interpretations.
